

Eastern Star Installation At Redondo Beach

Torrance Chapter No. 380, O. E. S., will hold open installation of officers at an impressive ceremony to be held Saturday evening, Nov. 29, 8 o'clock at Masonic Temple, corner of South Catalina and Ruby sts., Redondo Beach.

Elective officers to be installed are, Helene Miller, worthy patron; Homer Morgan, worthy patron; Leel Kerber, associate patron; Hillman R. Lee, associate patron; Frances Buckley, con- ductress; Naomi Brown, associ- ate conductress; Rosearold Wint- ter, secretary; Jennie Moore, treasurer.

An especially fine program has been arranged and everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Glatras re- cently entertained their son-in- law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Phil Pacina and daughters.

METHODIST CIRCLE MEETING NOTES

Mrs. John Keefe, 2259 Tor- rance blvd., will entertain Circle No. 3 at a Christmas party at her home, Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 2 o'clock.

Circle No. 2 will meet at the Parsonage Thursday morning Dec. 4 at 11 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at noon.

Members of Circle No. 1 will also meet that day at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Carr, 1596 Linden ave., Long Beach. A noon luncheon will be enjoyed.

NEWS OF TROOP 1 GIRL SCOUTS
At the last meeting of Girl Scouts Troop No. 1, a Thank- giving basket was packed. June Johnston and Myrna Fossum were in charge of arrangements and each member contributed toward the gift. The regular business meeting was adjourned so that members could at- tend the Torrance-Narbonne football game.

Coast-McNees Nuptials Held at Famed Church

Wend Kirk of the Heather in Glendale was the setting for the wedding Sunday evening of Miss Anabel McNees, daughter of Mrs. Hattie McNees of 1007 Coala ave., to Mr. Albert Melvin Coast, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coast of 711 Coala ave. Rev. Frank T. Porter, pastor of First Christian Church, officiated.

The bride was lovely in tradi- tional white satin, and she carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia. Mrs. Keith Coast, matron of honor, was dressed in rose moire. Her flowers were pink roses, sweet peas and delphinium. Brides- maids, gowned alike in blue and gold moire, and carrying con- trasting bouquets of roses, del- phinium and sweet peas, were the Misses Pauline McNees, sis- ter of the bride, and Georgina Tiffany. Keith Coast was the bridegroom's best man and J. B. Wallace and Arvid Smith ush- ered. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert McNees.

A reception for 65 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received her guests dressed in blue crepe with white gladiolus corsage, while Mrs. Coast wore green with brown accessories with white gladiolus corsage. Assis- ting were Mesdames Gaylor, An- drew, Clyde Jones, and Elmer Campbell, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. William Korth of Her- mosa Beach.

Mrs. Coast is a Torrance high school graduate, while her hus- band graduated from a Los An- geles high school. They will be at home to their friends at 618 1/2 North Junita st., Redondo Beach, following a honeymoon at Boulder Dam.

J. D. MOTHERS' CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY
Members of Job's Daughters Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. W. Quimby, 1323 Beach ave., Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Leel Kerber will assist as co-hostess. A large at- tendance is expected.

The benefit card party spon- sored by the group and held last Saturday evening at Episcopal Guild hall, was a social and fi- nancial success. Mrs. R. M. Ar- mitage and her committee wish to thank those who assisted and the merchants who contributed prizes for the party.

Among Thanksgiving family reunions here was one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. White, 2720 Carson st. Their guests were Messrs and Mes- sresses Wm. Stephen and family, Wilmington; Lloyd White and family, Glendale; Max Briney and Ray White, of South Gate.

V. F. W. MEMBERS ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

Members of the V. F. W. Sewing Club met at their head- quarters, Men's Bible Class building for a social evening recently. A large number of members and guests were pres- ent to enjoy bridge and pin- ochle and refreshments that were served at a late hour.

Among the guests were Elsie Watson, Department senior vice- president; Faye Boone, Depart- ment hospital chairman; Marv McPhail, Department first ad- jutant; Lea Spellman, Coun- ty Council senior vice-president; Bonnie Grant, Eulah Wassburg, Francis Demaris, and May White, all of Los Angeles; Eul- alia Grayfield, Wilmington; Ter- esa Andrews, Lomita; Marie Cass and Winifred Kelley, Gar- dena. Two initiates, May Mercer and Ames Landers, were in- troduced.

A beautiful banner made by Adeline Murry, was presented. Commander and Mrs. L. E. Stanley were surprised hon- orees on this, their 28th wedding anniversary, when Post and Auxiliary members gathered for refreshments and presented them with a lovely bouquet. A

Patriotic Program Presented At Elementary School

"Let Freedom Ring" was the topic chosen by Geoffrey T. Morgan, Douglas Aircraft pub- lic relations head, when he was presented as guest speaker at the annual Fathers' Night pro- gram at Torrance Elementary school Tuesday evening.

A fine musical program was presented, featuring Harriet Pogors who sang a group of selections accompanied by Miss Jean Yoder.

The program included a flag drill and a military march by Miss Applegate's pupils in which 11 girls participated, while pupils of Miss Jewell pre- sented a patriotic demonstration of "I am an American."

beautifully decorated cake was cut and the wedding march added appropriate background. The regular meeting will be held at the Bible Class bldg. this evening, Nov. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Knisler were recent visitors at Palm Springs.

HONOR PARENTS ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John Liddell of 1908 West 218th st., entertained an open house Sunday, Nov. 16, in honor of Mrs. Liddell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Richardson, who were celebrat- ing their golden wedding. In the evening the Liddells, Richard- sons and Mr. and Mrs. Roberts had dinner at Knotts' Berry Farm. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are both 65 years of age, hav- ing been only 15 when they were married.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert motored to San Diego Thank- giving day.

REBA MATTHEWS ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

At the last meeting of the Teeners, held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Fish, Miss Mar- garet Moon served as co-hostess. Miss Reba Matthews chose this occasion to announce her en- gagement to Mr. Charles Belcher of El Segundo. Those present were Misses Marjorie Rusk, Je- noyne Barkdull, Shirley Gutten- felder, Ruby Benner, Virginia Zamperini and Ruth Pankey.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tavan spent Thanksgiving at San Ysidro, where they visited his grand- mother and Mr. and Mrs. Mason Baily.
